

The Daughters of the Pioneers

of Washington Lewis County Chapter 9

Our goal : From our by laws

Object

To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the Pioneers of Washington; to identify, protect, preserve, and make known historical spots, documents, relics, records and incidents; to encourage and promote historical research in relation to pioneer days; to encourage the preservation and beautification of our natural resources; to celebrate historical and patriotic events relating to the State of Washington; to organize Chapters of the Daughters of the Pioneers of Washington in the cities and towns of the State of Washington; and to establish meeting places where such pioneers and their descendants may forgather and fraternize

Chapter 9 Meetings

are held on the Fourth Wednesdays of each Month Excluding July-August and December at 1 p.m. for meeting and dessert

*We meet at the Adna Evangelical Church
113 Dieckman Rd,
Adna Washington
Next to Adna Grange*

Eligibility

Anyone female Eighteen years of age or older who is an lineal decadent of a pioneer who established residence in Washington during the year of 1870 or prior there to or in Oregon in 1853 or prior, or in Idaho or Montana west of the crest of the Rocky Mountains in 1863 or prior there to.

Friends and Guests are always welcome